NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

Violation of Mandatory No. 1: “You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.”

Nature of Noncompliance: According to the Affidavit and Application for Arrest Warrant, on January 16, 2022, at approximately 6:15 p.m., H-E-B Loss Prevention Specialist, observed Richard Hatcher at 500 Canyon Ridge Dr. Austin, Texas 78553. The defendant was observed in the health living aisle with a bag which was completely flat. When observed later the bag had been filled with products. Mr. Hatcher approached the seasoning aisle and selected Webber Garlic Seasoning valued at $3.56 and Webber Garlic Parmesan valued at $2.00. Hatcher concealed the seasonings in his backpack. The loss prevention specialist maintained reasonable observation of the defendant as he shopped through the store and paid for some of the merchandise at the front checkout lane. The defendant passed the last point of sale and exited the store without paying for the concealed merchandise. The loss prevention specialist approached the defendant and requested he return inside the store. The defendant complied. Loss prevention officers recovered $123.28 of unpaid merchandise. Hatcher was released on scene due to no officers available to file the complaint.

On April 27, 2022, an affidavit was filed charging Hatcher for a Class B Misdemeanor Theft under Cause No. C-1-CR-22-500539. On May 2, 2022, the defendant turned himself in on the active warrant and was released the same date. The case remains pending.

U.S. Probation Officer Action: The probation office respectfully requests no adverse action be taken at this time to allow the State to dispose of the misdemeanor case. The Court will be notified of the disposition and if the offender incurs any further violations. Accordingly, the Court reserves the right to revisit this allegation in the future.
